GRANGE MEETING

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting Thursday night in the Grange Hall. Money raising suggestions were discussed and plans started on donations on a Thanksgiving turkey in charge of Barry Denham.

Mrs. Otto Kellish will supervise a food sale. It was decided to hold an auction as the big project. Any member or person wishing to donate a piece of furniture or item for an auction please contact the master, Mildred LeBaron or any member of the Grange and they will take care of picking it up. All proceeds of these activities are to go for the painting project that is nearly completed. Plans to fix up the grounds are also in the offing.

A report was given on the improvement of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Walsh, Grange members of long standing. Albert Pemberton was also reported ill.

Ruby Barber, Home and Community Service chairman, reported on the afternoon whist party, with Mrs. Langlois, Lena Ferra and Ruby Barber receiving the awards. For the lecturer's program, Lecturer Christine Bence conducted a games party with prizes for all.

The mystery package was awarded to Joseph Furtado.

The next meeting, November 5th, there will be a talent program by members of the Grange.

Refreshments were served by Ruby Barber and

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE OCTOBER 13

Hartley Saw Mill went to work in the Rochester Bowling League and made Knot-holes out of the Knotty Pine Cafe. Willie Weeks' 373 for the winners helped offset a 409 triple by Tony Lopes. The Woodchoppers pulled a surprise party for Sturtevant & Hook and took two points from the league leaders. Stu Lawrence led the Choppers and John Hayes hit 341 for S & H. Jay Hiller demonstrated the art of single pin-picking for a 374 as Hiller's took 2 points from Lloyds Market. Don Gifford's 355 sparkled for the losers. Fred Swift hit a 369 for Hartley's Garage and a 2 to 1 win from Herb's T.V.

JUVENILE GRANGE MEETING

The Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange will meet Friday night, October 23rd, in the Grange hall. Lecturer-elect Jane Wheeler will conduct a Halloween program.

STATE SECRETARY TO SPEAK AT FORUM

State Secretary Kevin H. White will be featured speaker at the second of three scheduled political forums scheduled for 8:00 P.M. Wednesday, October 21st, at the Old Rochester Regional High School in Mattapoisett.

The forum series has been inaugurated this year as part of the Adult Education Program developed by School Superintendent Joseph C. Kunces and Assistant Principal Harold M. Gay, Director of Adult Education.

Secretary White will be present to explain in detail the six special referenda questions that will appear on the November 3rd ballot in addition to liquor question automatically put to a vote every two years.

In addition to Secretary White, Wednesday'a panel speakers will include Frank Dibble of the Tabor Academy faculty who will discuss the current working of the Electoral College and the nature of the proposed changes in its operation; Mrs. Stephen E. Saunders, chairman of the structure of government committee of the Marion League of Women Voters; and former Attorney General Clarence A. Barnes. The latter two speakers will present opposing views of the Governor's Council referenda question.

The program will also include a question and

PARENTS OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Mario Gallo of Acushnet Road, Mattapoisett are parents of their third child and first son, Richard John, born Thursday, October 15th, at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Calnan of New Bedford and Mr. and Mrs. Dante Gallo of Thompsonville, Connecticut. Their daughters are Donna 12 and Doreen 22 months.

CLUB MEMBERS ATTEND CONFERENCE

The following attended the Community Service Conference of the Massachusetts State Federation of Women's Clubs in Southwick Friday, October 16th: Mrs. Marshall W. Ross, Mrs. Frank A. Oxnard, Mrs. Harold E. Prunty, Mrs. David Goodenough, all of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club and Mrs. George E. Glaeser, immediate past president of the Sippican Woman's Club, Marion.

PTC MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

The membership drive for the Parent-Teachers Club of Mattapoisett was held last week-end. A large committee assisted chairman, Mrs. Joseph J. Sullivan and she wishes to thank them for their help. This year the club will work toward the purchase of an audio visual machine for the school. It was mistakenly reported last week that the purpose of the drive was the purchase of the reading equipment.

MATTAPOISETT REPUBLICAN TOWN COMMITTEE

David N. Haley Chairman, Barstow St., Mattapoisett, Mass.

ATTENDED GOP FUND RAISING DINNER

Attorney Richard W. Paull, chairman of the Marion Republican Town Committee; Mrs. Edna L. Borden, vice-chairman; and Mrs. Kathryn Ellis Nowak, Marion chairman Women For Goldwater, attended the Republican fund-raising dinner at Commonwealth Armory, Boston.

The main speaker, Dr. Walter H. Judd, former missionary to China and former Congressman, was given a glowing introduction by Hon. Margaret M. Heckler, Executive Councillor. The women showed their admiration for Mrs. Heckler by leading a standing ovation. Dr. Judd held the audience spellbound. He has an adroit way of driving his points home, attended by humorous asides, which made his hearers howl with gleeful appreciation. One such comment was misunderstood for an instant until it was recalled that Dr. Judd, himself, was nominated at the National Convention. He said we did not always get our first choices in life, that his first choice had not been Barry Goldwater, and then with his impish grin, he said his first choice had been for himself, naturally.

Another example cited by Dr. Judd was regarding the football team of his home State, Minnesota, which has not been doing too well lately. However, that did not mean that Minnesotans should go out and root for the team of some other State. The crowd got that comparison and cheered lustily.

Harmony was the theme, and it was noted that former UN Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge was chatting amicable at the head table with Frederic C. Dumaine, Jr., chairman of the Republican State Committee. Former Governor Volpe emphasized his intense desire to have all of the Republican candidates elected, saying that their special qualifications and experience would be invaluable in getting affairs running on a businesslike basis. Congressmen Keith, Bates and Morse greeted their former colleague, Dr. Judd. Senator Saltonstall extended the message of greeting. Invocation was by Rev. Robert L. Ryer, grace by Rev. Guy S. Morrison, benediction by Rabbi Herbert Rosenblum. Ladd Plumley, Finance Chairman, was toastmaster. Attorney General Brooke spoke on 1964 Challenge.

Other Republican notables at the head table included Hon. Howard Whitmore, Jr., candidate for the U. S. Senate; Mrs. Roger H. Hallowell, National Committeewoman of Massachusetts; Hon. Philip Graham, minority Senate leader; Hon. Sidney Q. Curtiss, minority House leader; Hon. Irene K. Thresher, vice-chairman Finance Committee; Lloyd B. Waring, Massachusetts for Gold water Coordinator; Mrs. James W. Blackham, Jr., President Massachusetts Federation of Republican Women; Mrs. William G. Brown, III, vice-chairman State Committee; and representatives of the Council of Young Republican Clubs.

EXHIBIT AT WHALING MUSEUM

An exhibit, focusing on the historic significance and cultural heritage of the Massachusetts capitol building will be on display for three weeks, beginning October 20th, at the Whaling Museum, 18 Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford.

Made available for display throughout the Commonwealth as an adjunct to A New Guide to the Massachusetts State House, the exhibit is inspired by the photographs and text of the generously illustrated brochure and gives special emphasis to the symbolism in decoration and motif incorporated in the building design by its architect, the noted Charles Bulfinch.

Prepared as a public service by the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company in recognition of its namesake, the first elected governor of the Commonwealth, the dight-panel exhibit consists of 48 illustrations. It was first shown in Doris Hall, official ceremony room of the capitol, during ceremonies early this Summer observing publication of the new State House Guide. It was later on display at the New England Pavilion of the New York World's Fair and comes to the Whaling Museum following a showing at the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To The Presto Editor:

As a patriotic American citizen, I am greatly upset over the many disturbing, yes frightening, conditions facing us in this 1964 election.

I ask myself how we voters have become so apathetic as to allow things to go from bad to worse in this country, which used to be considered the most outstanding nation in the world.

I also ask myself if by an unfortunate circumstance the present administration is returned to power, whether it may mean that by the time 1968 rolls around, the federal government may be so involved that our free voting privileges may be non-existent, or practically so.

It is frightening to read that Communist spokesmen have spoken 93 times on 83 college campuses in the past 30 months.

I am for Barry Goldwater for President because I believe he will stage a cleanup. It cannot be accomplished overnight, but it will be encouraging to see a start made in this direction, which is so badly needed.

With the help of enlightened Democrats and Independents, let's make 1964 a year of vic-

Civil Rights

We must always make a sharp distinction between civil rights guaranteed under the Constitution and those rights of association that are basically moral issues and cannot he resolved by passing unenforceable Federal laws.

The rights to vote, to equal treatment before the law, to hold property, and to the protection of contracts — these rights are guaranteed hy the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to the Constitution. They should he enforced rigorously. Existing law demands it.

In the schools, the Attorney General probably has the necessary authority through court decrees to effect integration. But if it develops that more authority must be granted in this particular area, we should write a law that is tightly drawn — that can be used with precision, like a rifle, not a shotgun.

As for the proposed puhlic accommodations law, it raises grave constitutional questions and is a clear example of a new law that will only hinder, not help, the cause of racial tolerance. It is an invitation to improper interference by the Federal Government with the right of assembly and the use of private property. It could open the door to a police-state system of enforcement that would eventually threaten the liberty of all.

I believe individual actions by every American will eliminate the stigma of discrimination from our society. For my part, as chief of staff of the Arizona Air National Guard right after World War II, I helped bring about integration in that body. I also assisted in the desegregation of restaurants and other facilities in Phoenix by local option. The Goldwater businesses are desegregated.

Unenforceable government edicts henefit no one. Continued public attention and moral persuasion, I believe, will do more in the long run to create the good will necessary to the acceptance of decent racial relations in all segments of our society.

Our people must not be herded into the streets for the redress of their grievances. We have hetter and more lasting ways. The Constitution must be preserved. Far greater advances will be made, for all Americans, under a system of orderly law than through emotional or violent revisions of Constitutional concepts.

Senator Barry Goldwater

Rochester Royals, Fred Law of the Mattapoisett Blues, Louis Marcosa of the Mattapoisett Greens and James Sullivan of the Mattapoisett Reds.

Donald Ben David and Victor Meservey of the Rochester Royals presented appreciation plaques to their two coaches, George Knight and Al Jenney, for their fine work with the Rochester team.

Members of the Sports Committee, in charge of the party, were Henry Mogilni, Louis Pepin, Oliver LaFrance, Cliff Macomber and Ed Valladoa.

Henry Mogilni and Oliver LaFrance welcomed the players and guests and paid tribute to the many people who gave of their time to make this a good season for the League. Coaches of teams are Anthony Guilherme and William MacLean of the Greens, Peter Prewitt of the Marion Cubs, Howard Roy and William Steff of the Marion Eagles, Al Jenney and George Knight of Rochester, Henry Mogilni and Floyd Empey of the Mattapoisett Reds and Louis Pepin and Granville Trow of the Mattapoisett Blues.

Logan Doane was the hit of the evening with a demonstration of hypnosis. He kept the younger set in alternate fits of awe and laughter and his act will be the subject of conversation for months to come.

The Mattapoisett Sports Committee wishes to thank coaches, umpires, women of the three towns and others who helped make this a good year. It would not be possible, in this limited space to personally thank each individual for the splendid cooperation received. We sincerely hope that everyone knows how appreciative we are.

WHALING MUSEUM VISITING HOURS

The New Bedford Whaling Museum, 18 Johnny Cake Hill, New Bedford, announced a new schedule of winter visiting hours.
Starting the first of October the Museum will be closed on Mondays. Tuesday through Saturday the new hours are from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. and Sunday from 1 to 5 P.M.

"One of the reasons for the new weekday schedule was to keep the Museum open for research in its library and manuscript collections", Mr. Bowditch, the director, said. "The Society's collections in local maritime history are available from the High School level on up, and it is to be hoped that the additional late evening time will provide an extra service to the community."

ges, lady assistant steward; Joseph Ouellette, steward; Ruth Fuller, Flora; Blanche Ouellette, Pomona; Nellie Hartley, Ceres; Mrs. Hedges, home and community service; Alfred Maccarone, executive board, 3 years; Doris Gurney and Marion Hartley, pianists. Installed at another time as assistant steward will be Joseph Sylvaria, who is a patient at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford.

The hall was decorated with a Fall motif by Lois Taylor and Dorothea Hedges. Decorating the stage were cornstalks, pumpkins, a large basket of Fall foliage and mixed artificial flowers with a cornucopia of mixed fruit on the mantel of a fireplace setting.

Extending greetings were June Westgate, master of Acushnet Grange; Clayton Westgate, State Youth Committee; Louis Gurney, State deputy, East Freetown Grange; Norman Ouellette, South Middleboro Grange; Frank Jefferson, past master of South Middleboro Grange; Mabel Keyes, master of West Wareham Grange; Jethro Ashley, Acushnet Grange; and Lois Ouellette, representative of Sippican Pomona Grange.

The quarterly report was read by Robert Ouellette. Also reported to be a patient at St. Luke's Hospital is Mrs. Henry B. Smith. James Hartley is a patient at Tobey Hospital, Wareham. Thank you notes were received from Victor St. Aubin for fruit received while recovering from an injury suffered in a work accident, and also from Mr. Hartley for a plant he received while recuperating from a previous hospitalization. An invitation was received to attend Fairhaven Grange October 22nd.

Gifts of appreciation were presented to Audrey Ouellette for filling in as acting secretary for Rochester Grange and to Mrs. Westgate for serving as substitute pianist. A poem was read by Mrs. Taylor during the lecturer's program. The silver march was won by Mrs. Hedges and Mrs. Keyes. Coffee and cake were served by Harold F. Taylor, assisted by Grange members.

A Halloween party will be featured at the October 28th meeting of Rochester Grange. The program will include games and other Halloween activities.

The Bay State's senior U. S. Senator, Leverett Saltonstall, and top GOP candidates will be head table guests.

Nuclear control seems to be the basis for much of the Democrat campaign. To this end, the Democrats have imposed upon the TV screens horror films unparalleled in political TV advertising.

Senator Goldwater has been assailed by President Johnson, Senator Humphrey and Defense Department spokesmen for suggesting that the NATO commander in Europe be given discretion, in certain circumstances, to use nuclear weapons in the event of an enemy attack. In its September 25 issue, Time Magazine says that "In 1957, the Congressional Joint Committee on Atomic Energy received written notification that plans were being developed to give NATO's supreme commander in Europe the right to use nuclear weapons in certain contingencies..... Those plans are now in operation."

According to Time, General Norstad never doubted his authority to use tactical atomic weapons in the event of an attack on Western Europe during the Cuban missile crisis of 1962.

Senator Saltonstall said in Boston September 24, 1964, "During the years I have worked with Senator Goldwater on the Armed Services Committee, I have come to have great confidence in his judgment on those matters so vital to our safety and peace in the world."

Former President Eisenhower said recently to Senator Goldwater: "The Country recognizes in you a man of intense good-will, honesty and dedication to his country. You're not going to 'push buttons'. That's just crazy."
